“White and Light”

Saturday 17 November 2018 at 11.15 am to 5.15 pm

St Nicholas Church Harpenden

This is a singing day for young choristers - children aged from 8 to 12 who are at the White or Light Blue Level of RSCM Voice for Life, and for children who are thinking of joining a choir.

To include singing, fun musical activities, vocal & musicianship training and a performance at the end of the afternoon.

The singing day, at St Nicholas Church Harpenden, will be led by Marie Price, our Area Chair, who is Director of Music at St Nicholas Church and has been a Chorister Outreach Project Animateur for Hertfordshire Music Service and St Albans Cathedral, as well as a Primary School Music Leader, ‘Sing Up’ Animateur and Church Choir director for many years. Marie has led RSCM singing courses for adults and children in various parts of the country and will be assisted by other experienced church musicians.

St Nicholas Church is on Church Green in the centre of Harpenden, a short walk from Harpenden Thameslink Station. There are many shops and facilities nearby.

Children should bring their own drinks and a packed lunch. Robes will not be worn, children should wear comfortable clothing and shoes.

Book online at www.rscm-stalbans.co.uk. The fee for this event is £7 per child, but book before 31 October and your fee is just £5... that’s less than £1 per hour! Closing date for bookings - Wednesday 7 November.

Choir Trainers are welcome as observers for no charge. Children aged 6 or 7 may attend if they are confident readers and are accompanied by an adult. All children must bring a completed permission form, available on our website.
