'Everybody can be Somebody'

Parental Engagement

A workshop to explore the EEF Guidance Report

Parents play a crucial role in supporting their children's learning, and levels of parental engagement are consistently associated with children's academic outcomes. However, it is often not clear how to most effectively engage parents in order to improve outcomes for students.

The workshop will:

- Explore the evidence-base on effective parental engagement
- Explore the recommendations from the EEF Guidance Report
- Provide delegates with practical strategies to use at school

Aimed at

Teachers, middle leaders and school leaders in primary and secondary schools

Date and venue

Tuesday 11th February 2020, 2 - 4pm
